

METROPOLITAN FORENSIC INVESTIGATION DIVISION

OFFICIAL INCIDENT REPORT: #CR-2026-9042

SUBJECT: THE THEFT OF THE MEDICI COIN & CIPHER SCROLL

1. INCIDENT OVERVIEW:

At 22:45 hours on October 14, 2026, security alarms were triggered at the Grand St. Jude Numismatic Archi

2. CRITICAL OPPORTUNITY WINDOW:

Between 22:30 and 22:42 hours, an intentional electrical surge knocked out secondary CCTV feeds in Corrid

3. PERSONS OF INTEREST / SUSPECTS:

- Suspect 1: Dr. Marcus Vance (Head Curator). Held master keycard #004. Claims he was in the research lib
- Suspect 2: Elena Rostova (Senior Conservator). Specialist in Renaissance cipher restoration. Resigned u
- Suspect 3: Arthur Pendelton (Night Security Supervisor). On duty during the surge. Claims the surge was

4. FORENSIC EVIDENCE LOGGED:

- Evidence E-01 (Digital Log): Vault biometric terminal logged keycard #004 (assigned to Dr. Vance) at 22
- Evidence E-02 (Physical Trace): Microscopic traces of graphite lubricant and copper filings recovered f
- Evidence E-03 (Chemical Analysis): Nitrile glove residue containing traces of Renaissance iron-gall ink
- Evidence E-04 (Surveillance Exhibit): Exterior perimeter camera footage confirms a hooded individual ca

5. INVESTIGATIVE INCONSISTENCIES & RED FLAGS:

- Dr. Vance denies ever leaving the library, yet his master keycard was swiped at the inner vault at 22:3
- Arthur Pendelton logged the blackout as "Grid Fluctuation", directly contradicting electrical telemetry
- Touch DNA has not yet been processed on breaker #4 switch toggle.